NAWA MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Professional women artists, at least 18 years of age and citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. and Puerto Rico, are eligible to apply for membership in the National Association of Women Artists, Inc. In March and September of each year, new NAWA members are selected by a jury from applications and CDs. Accepted artists join a distinguished roster of past and present members including Mary Cassatt, Gertrude Vanderbilt Whitney, Isabel Bishop, Anna Hyatt Huntington, Alice Neel, Louise Nevelson, Audrey Flack, Miriam Schapiro, Pat Adams, Faith Ringgold, and many others. Currently, over 800 women artists from across the United States are members of the association. We thank you for considering membership.

Benefits of NAWA Membership

Exhibition Opportunities – The association organizes juried and curated exhibitions throughout the U.S. in galleries, museums, universities and art centers. We exhibit in various venues in New York City including our own NAWA Gallery office space. All members are entitled to exhibit one piece in the non-juried Annual Exhibition and to receive a catalog.

Awards – NAWA artists compete for exhibition awards totaling over $10,000 annually. Judges are chosen from outside the organization.

Networking - Opportunities are available to meet other professional women artists and to share concerns and advice through participation on committees and attendance at salons, receptions and special events.

Education - Programs address topics of professional development for artists. NAWA members are invited to attend lectures, panels and seminars which are open to the public.

Volunteering – New members are encouraged to volunteer for a minimum of 6 hours per year. Volunteers can serve on one or more of the following committees: Exhibitions, Membership, Outreach, Public Relations or Special Events. Local volunteers can work in our New York City office.

Florida Chapter – Members who want to participate in the exhibitions and activities of the Florida Chapter can do so for an additional $30.00 in dues.

NEW Massachusetts Chapter – Members who want to participate in the exhibitions and activities of the Massachusetts Chapter can do so for an additional $30.00 in dues.

NAWA Website – Each member may place an image of her work on the NAWA website (www.thenawa.org). In addition, the Association can provide a Direct link to a member's individual website. Members can follow us on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.

Listing in the NAWA Newsletter – Members' accomplishments, current exhibits and awards are listed in our online newsletter.

History – Each member is catalogued in the NAWA historic archive. The archives and image files are available to curators and scholars and provide opportunities for national exposure.
